

Alexandria Gazette

MONDAY EVENING, MARCH 13.

ACTS THAT HAVE BECOME LAWS.—The Governor approved the following acts March 10, 1876:

Appropriating money for the extension of the Western and Eastern Lunatic Asylums.

To permit the Richmond City Guard to uniform themselves in such manner as they may desire.

To amend sections 3 and 5 of the charter of the Albemarle Insurance Company, passed March 1, 1854, as amended February 21, 1871, and to make further provisions in regard to the charter of said company.

To amend an act approved March 26, 1875, to amend section 14 of the act to fix the terms of the circuit courts.

To incorporate the Birmingham Coal and Iron Company.

To authorize the Manchester Cotton Mills Company to reduce its capital stock.

To prescribe the times for holding the courts in the Eighth judicial circuit.

Rumor says that Mademoiselle de la Rame, better known as "Ouida," has recently married a Russian gentleman of large fortune. If this be true, and the gifted but unfortunate authoress be at last happy, the literary world will doubtless soon be presented with a novel that will rival the creations of George Sand, and almost equal those of George Eliot. Russia offers a grand field for genius, besides being a country whose inner social life is little known to other lands, except through the medium of Turgenieff's fictions. Theophile Gautier, in his "Un hiver en Russie," painted the opening notes of a symphony that promises great and perfect harmonies in the future, the theme of which will be the glories and beauties of the land of the Czars.

Hon. George Peabody.
White Sulphur Springs, Va., Aug. 2, 1869.
Dr. J. S. Pemberton—Dear Sir: I am gratified to inform you that the Globe Flower Cough Syrup has been of great benefit to me. I have been suffering with throat and lung disease for some time, and used many of the most celebrated remedies on the continent, and can conscientiously say that none proved so pleasant and beneficial in my case as your remedy. With my good wishes for your success,
I am yours respectfully,
GEORGE PEABODY.

Globe Flower Cough Syrup cures Coughs, Whooping Cough, Croup, Pleurisy, Pain and Soreness in the Breast, and will positively cure Consumption. We shall publish in the Gazette Testimonials of great and good men, the names of whose names cannot be doubted, in regard to the merits of Globe Flower Syrup. We prefer to let them speak.
